Baseball “Three”

Object: Make the largest product possible.
Materials: cards 1-9, paper, pencil

Directions:
Each player takes four cards. Players arrange their cards to make two 2-digit numbers. Find the product of the two factors. The player with the largest product scores a point. The first player to score nine points (for nine innings) is the winner.

Variation: Make the smallest product.

*from Box Cars and One Eyed Jacks